Notes

Many State Parks in Texas schedule special First Day Hikes.

Grab your friends and cinch up your clan tartan, kilt and sporran for our annual Burns Supper Celebration. A night of all things Scottish! Hosted by Wildcat Bluff at Esquire Jazz Club. Featuring Scotch tastings paired with tasty finger foods and haggis. Music of the isles by Those Guys, Mike Fuller, James Lee Baker, and Keralee Clay and Neil Nossaman as well as the Amarillo Fire Department Bagpipers. Desert by Scratch Made Bakery. Tickets are $40 per person and include food, Scotch tastings, music, and a beer or wine at the bar (additional bar beverages can be purchased throughout the evening) and all the fun the Scots expect of a roaring good time.

Staged annually in the warm surroundings of the elegantly restored 1910 Home Mercantile, the oldest store in Nazareth, the gala raises funds for this historic German farming community. A 5-star dinner, with local wines and many ingredients locally grown and raised, is served by bow-tied Boy Scouts amid live local entertainment.

For the 50th consecutive year, the Kwahadi Dancers of Amarillo will present their Winter Night Ceremonials on weekends in late January and February. Made up mostly of teenagers, the Kwahadi Youth Dance Theater interprets the traditional dances of the desert farming people of the Southwest for the performance, titled "Tyuonyi: A Journey in Time." The performances, held inside a purpose-built kiva lodge filled with art and artifacts.

To commemorate the 60th anniversary of the tragic plane crash that claimed the lives of Buddy Holly, Ritchie Valens, J.P. Richardson (The Big Bopper) and pilot Roger Peterson, the Buddy Holly Center has a triple-tiered weekend of events honoring "The Day the Music Died" and celebrating the center's 20th anniversary year. Start off Friday evening, Feb. 1, with a concert by Buddy's nephew, guitarist Eddy Weir, during First Friday Art Trail. Then, admission is free during regular hours Saturday and Sunday, with special exhibition, gallery talk, and concert.

Packet Pickup / Pasta Dinner: March 27, 2:00-4:00 PM, at Rita Blanca Park, Dalhart, TX

Both the young and young at heart enjoy our Ranch Day activities each spring when cowboys, horses, chuck wagons and 185 volunteers, many dressed in period clothing, make pioneer life come alive for visitors. More than 5,000 guests attend the popular event every year to participate in hands-on ranch or range science and history demonstrations as well as music, dancing, a Comanche tepee, horseback riding, and an old-fashioned "Snake Oil Magic Show" in the 6666 Barn. The event is open to the public at no charge, but a $5 per family donation is suggested. The historic park is wheelchair and stroller accessible.

This event is a celebration of the 4th of July with a parade and street fair. The parade begins at 9 a.m., followed by live music and a wide array of food and craft booths lined up through Broadway. The day ends with a concert and firework display.

One of Lubbock's largest annual events, the Lubbock Arts Festival is a celebration of visual, performing and children's arts. The visual art division of the Lubbock Arts Festival includes 150 artists from around the nation in booths displaying and selling original work in the mediums of painting, drawing, pottery, fiber, jewelry, glass, wood and sculpture. Singers, musicians, dancers and actors will perform throughout the weekend on different stages. Audiences can enjoy such diverse offerings as brass bands, storytellers, string quartets and ballet folkloric dancers. Children can also explore the Lubbock Arts Festival as they go from "Kid Stop" to "Kid Stop" to make art projects, participate in theatre improvisation, and watch artists demonstrating with clay and watercolor.

The event is a shop local event. Participating stores are open late from 5pm to 8pm for after hours shopping. Some stores offer discounts, giveaways or refreshments. Everyone who makes a purchase is given an "I kept the cheer here" card which enters them into a drawing of $100 in Brownfield Bucks and other prizes.

There will be a noon meal of chili, beans and cornbread by the Junior Class and the EEA Clubs will have a Sweet Shop offering slices of homemade pie. There will be activities for children and a Children's Store where kids can purchase gifts for $1 for family and friends. After the afternoon wraps up at the Emergency Services Building, the Kent County Chamber of Commerce will have soup and a movie for $5 at the Community Center followed by their annual lighted parade and the tree lighting on the Town Square.

Spur's historic "main drag" lights up with fun, food, and festivities. Start the evening with Cokrs & Columnists at The Texas Spur newspaper office and a Pancacke Supper at the Masonic Lodge, then make your way to the Holiday Tree Lighting at the Visitor Center, Shopping Bazaar at the Community Center, vendor late night hours, and Santa visits at the Palace Theater.

Levelland Main Street, the Marigolds of Levelland, and South Plains College (SPC) will partner again to bring you the Levelland Festival of Lights & Christmas on the Square, TUESDAY, December 3, 2019.

The event begins at the SPC entrance with the lighting of the trees. Hot coco will be served and the SPC Symphonic Band will play Christmas music before the ceremonial "flip of the switch" by the SPC President to turn on all the campus Christmas lights! The Lighted Parade route is over a mile long and will start at SPC and travel North on College Ave, turn West onto Houston Street and end at the Square. Santa Claus will lead the parade and arrive at the gazebo to visit with all the children about their Christmas wishes and receive a goodie bag from the Marigolds of Levelland. Many other activities will take place on the Courthouse lawn while families wait to see Santa.

Tickets are $40 and seating is limited to 25; may be purchased at the Chamber office. The Spearman HS art teacher will guide the group in painting a Christmas canvas painting

Theme: "Our Christmas Wish"

The first Saturday of December brings a full-on celebration for our community and visitors. Great holiday shopping opportunities in our small-town atmosphere are topped off with the annual lighted Christmas parade on Main Street. Dozens of entries – horses, antique tractors, floats, vintage cars and, of course, Santa – all aglow with thousands of lights welcome the holiday season.

The Memorial Chapel will be open with delicious homemade cookies, refreshments and live Christmas music! This is the major fundraiser for the Little Chapel of Brookhollow.

Riders In The Sky are truly exceptional! For more than thirty years Riders In The Sky have been keepers of the flame passed on by the Sons of the Pioneers, Gene Autry and Roy Rogers, reviving and revitalizing the genre. And while remaining true to the integrity of Western music, they have themselves become modern-day icons by branding the genre with their own legendary wacky humor and way-out Western wit, and all along encouraging buckaroos and buckarettes to live life “The Cowboy Way!”

Dinner, Dance with The Martin Band

Bring your children and grandchildren to Mackenzie Park and enjoy a Lubbock tradition! Children from Lubbock and surrounding communities are invited to Santa Land’s Opening Ceremony on Monday, December 10, 2018, at 6:00 p.m. Lubbock City Council members will welcome Santa and Mrs. Claus from the North Pole, turn on the Christmas lights in this winter village, and officially open Santa Land.

Lubbock Parks and Recreation has hosted Santa Land for the past 63 years, and admission for all ages is free. Santa Land is open every evening from December 10-23, 2018, from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. nightly. Approximately 50,000 people visit Santa Land each year to see the festive holiday village with its huge lighted Christmas tree, animated displays, bonfires, traditional holiday scenes, and of course, Santa and Mrs. Claus. Each evening at 6:00 p.m. during this 14-night event, a sleigh with tiny reindeer bring Santa and Mrs. Claus to Santa Land to hear the Christmas wishes of area children. Don’t forget to look for Bo, Santa Land’s very own Elf on the Shelf each night and message your pictures of him to our Parks and Recreation Facebook page to enter a chance to win a prize! Families will enjoy live entertainment most evenings from 6:30-8:00 p.m. Hot chocolate and other refreshments are available for sale at the concession stand.

Join us Thursday, December 5th at 5:30pm downtown Floydada. Santa and Mrs. Claus will be at Nutthouse Designs. There will be hot chocolate, shopping and a beautiful Christmas card picture worthy backdrop. Cathy's Floral & Gifts and Payne Pharmacy will be open to start your Christmas shopping, as well as vendors down California Street. Vendor spaces are FREE. See ya at the Square!
